DECLARATION OF W. KYLE TAYMAN IN SUPPORT OF QUICKEN LOANS, LLC'S OBJECTION TO UNSEALING DOCUMENTS

I, W. Kyle Tayman, declare as follows:

1. I am a member of the Massachusetts and District of Columbia bars, and am admitted to practice in this Court. I am a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of the law firm of Goodwin Procter LLP, and counsel to Quicken Loans, LLC (f/k/a Quicken Loans Inc.) ("Quicken Loans") in this matter. I submit this Declaration in support of Quicken Loans' Objection to Unsealing Documents.

2. I make this Declaration based upon my personal knowledge and participation in the litigation when it was previously pending, as well as my review of documents or information produced, served, or filed during the course of this litigation. The information provided herein is true and correct to the best of my current knowledge, information, and belief.

3. The Parties' summary judgment and Daubert briefing, and the documents filed in support thereof, which were filed on the docket in this litigation at ECF Nos. 176-186, 188-288, 292-347, and 350-355 ("Summary Judgment Filings"), contain non-public documents produced and maintained throughout the litigation and to the present, as "Confidential" by Quicken Loans pursuant to the Parties' Stipulated Protective Order (ECF No. 60; Doc. 37, United States v. Quicken Loans Inc., 1:15-cv-00613 (D.D.C. May 4, 2016)) ("Protective Order").

4. The Summary Judgment Filings contain non-public personally-identifying information, and proprietary and confidential information of at least three types.

5. First, the Summary Judgment Filings contain private information about Quicken Loans' consumers and team members (employees), including personal identifying information, and information about consumers' individual financial and personal circumstances. This information includes, but is not limited to: borrowers' full names, Social Security Numbers, dates of birth, credit scores, and addresses; financial account numbers (including taxpayer-identification numbers); personal (non-business) email addresses and cell phone numbers of borrowers and Quicken Loans' team members; team member personnel files and other disciplinary records; and borrowers' tax returns or transcripts.

6. For example, the Summary Judgment Filings include completed uniform loan applications for individual consumers, which reveal personal identifying information about the consumers, such as their individual financial account numbers, and home property addresses. See Exhibit 1 hereto (an exemplar uniform loan application from May 2008).

7. The Summary Judgment Filings also contain non-public information about borrowers' sensitive and private life events, such as information about medical histories, health status, job losses, marital status and divorces.

8. Second, the Summary Judgment Filings contain business information, processes, methodologies, and depictions of technologies of Quicken Loans, which Quicken Loans maintains is confidential, non-public and trade secret.

9. For example, the Summary Judgment Filings include screenshots and detailed discussions about the interface of Quicken Loans' proprietary technology; Quicken Loans' operating procedures, and other proprietary and confidential business records or procedural guides; demonstrations of specialized methodologies for tracking information through the origination and underwriting of a loan; and screenshots of and discussions of technology that Quicken Loans uses in unique ways as part of its internal systems and processes.

10. Third, the Summary Judgment Filings contain non-public documents and information from HUD, including about its enforcement decisions, which the Government asserted during the litigation was Confidential pursuant to the Protective Order and had instructed Quicken Loans could not be publicly filed.

11. In order to maintain the seal on the Summary Judgment Filings while the Parties were involved in mediation, on April 12, 2019, the Parties jointly requested that the Court amend its Sealing Order (ECF No. 175) maintaining the seal on the Summary Judgment Filings, and grant an extension on the deadline for the Parties to submit additional proof under Rule 5.3 to maintain the seal. See ECF No. 357.

12. Between approximately May 16, 2019 and June 3, 2019, while mediation efforts were ongoing, the Parties made four additional joint requests (which the Court granted) to extend its Sealing Order maintaining the seal on the Summary Judgment Filings, and to extend the deadline for the Parties to submit additional proof under Rule 5.3 to maintain the seal. See ECF Nos. 359-362.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

(if for HUD/FHA). The Debt Collection Act of 1982, Pub. Law 97-365, and HUD's Housing and Community Development Act of 1987, 42 U.S.C. 3543, require persons applying for a federally insured or guaranteed loan to furnish his/her social security number (SSN). You must provide all the requested information, including your SSN. HUD and/or VA may conduct a computer match to verify the information you provide. HUD and/or VA may disclose certain information to Federal, State and local agencies when relevant to civil, criminal, or regulatory investigations and prosecutions. Any disclosure of information outside VA or HUD/FHA will be made only as permitted by law. Failure to provide any of the requested information, including SSN, may result in disapproval of your loan application. This is notice to you as required by the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 that VA or HUD/FHA has a right of access to financial records held by financial institutions in connection with the consideration or administration of assistance to you. Financial records involving your transaction will be available to VA and HUD/FHA without further notice or authorization but will not be disclosed or released by this institution to another Government Agency or Department without your consent except as required or permitted by law. Caution. Delinquencies, defaults, foreclosures and abuses of mortgage loans involving programs of the Federal Government can be costly and detrimental to your credit, now and in the future. The lender in this transaction, its agents and assigns as well as the Federal Government, its agencies, agents and assigns, are authorized to take any and all of the following actions in the event loan payments become delinquent on the mortgage loan described in the attached application: (1) Report your name and account information to a credit bureau; (2) Assess additional interest and penalty charges for the period of time that payment is not made; (3) Assess charges to cover additional administrative costs incurred by the Government to service your account; (4) Offset amounts owed to you under other Federal programs; (5) Refer your account to a private attorney, collection agency or mortgage servicing agency to collect the amount due, foreclose the mortgage, sell the property and seek judgment against you for any deficiency; (6) Refer your account to the Department of Justice for litigation in the courts; (7) If you are a current or retired Federal employee, take action to offset your salary, or civil service retirement benefits; (8) Refer your debt to the Internal Revenue Service for offset against any amount owed to you as an income tax refund; and (9) Report any resulting written-off debt of yours to the Internal Revenue Service as your taxable income. Part IV - Borrower Consent for Social Security Administration to Verify Social Security Number

I authorize the Social Security Administration to verify my Social Security number to the Lender identified in this document and HUD/FHA, through a computer match conducted by HUD/FHA.

I understand that my consent allows no additional information from my Social Security records to be provided to the Lender, and HUD/FHA and that verification of my Social Security number does not constitute confirmation of my identity. I also understand that my Social Security number may not be used for any other purpose than the one stated above, including resale or redisclosure to other parties. 23. Complete for VA-Guaranteed Mortgage. Have you ever had a VA home Loan? ☐ Yes ☐ No

24. Applicable for Both VA & HUD. As a home loan borrower, you will be legally obligated to make the mortgage payments called for by your mortgage loan contract. The fact that you dispose of your property after the loan has been made will not relieve you of liability for making these payments. Payment of the loan in full is ordinarily the way liability on a mortgage note is ended. Some home buyers have the mistaken impression that if they sell their homes when they move to another locality, or dispose of it for any other reasons, they are no longer liable for the mortgage payments and that liability for these payments is solely that of the new owners. Even though the new owners may agree in writing to assume liability for your mortgage payments, this assumption agreement will not relieve you from liability to the holder of the note which you signed when you obtained the loan to buy the property. Unless you are able to sell the property to a buyer who is acceptable to VA or to HUD/FHA and who will assume the payment of your obligation to the lender, you will not be relieved from liability to repay any claim which VA or HUD/FHA may be required to pay your lender on account of default in your loan payments. The amount of any such claim payment will be a debt owed by you to the Federal Government. This debt will be the object of established collection procedures.

25. I, the Undersigned Borrower(s) Certify that:

I do not and will not have outstanding after loan closing any unpaid contractual obligation on account of such cash payment.

(4) Neither I, nor anyone authorized to act for me, will refuse to sell or rent, after the making of a bona fide offer, or refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of, or otherwise make unavailable or deny the dwelling or property covered by his/her loan to any person because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin. I recognize that any restrictive covenant on this property relating to race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin is illegal and void and civil action for preventive relief may be brought by the Attorney General of the United States in any appropriate U.S. District Court against any person responsible for the violation of the applicable law.
